Babyni kozy, Kyiv region

The Babin family breeds young goats for sale, makes craft cheeses and soap based on goat's milk.

The money received from the grant was spent on a battery and a planetary mixer. Now, they are able to increase their soap production and work even during power cuts.

DevoHome, Kyiv region

"DevoHome" produces natural bedding, clothing and household items from hypoallergenic hemp fibre.

Owner Oksana is a single mother with three children. She has a patent for the technology of producing textiles and fur from hemp. The financial assistance received was spent on the purchase of fabric.

www.help-ukraine.org.ua

Help - Hilfe zur Selbsthilfe in Ukraine supported 325 microbusinesses in Kyiv, Chernihiv and Zhytomyr regions with the support of the Federal Foreign Office of Germany and Aktion Deutschland Hilft.

horosha, Kyiv

The horosha brand produces natural raw pressed oils from various types of raw materials (flax, sesame, almond, sunflower, etc.) by cold pressing without contact with metal.

The grant funds were used to buy a powerful oil press, additional equipment and raw materials, which greatly facilitated the business.

"zefirka" is an atelier that was

Luhansk region, and is now

resuming its work in Kyiv.

in Sievierodonetsk.

They work with knitwear made to individual sizes. With grant funds, they equipped a workshop and bought new machines to increase production volumes.

zefirka, Kyiv

founded

solodko_solono, Kyiv

Yulia Shapovalova used to make sweets in Sievierodonetsk, but moved to Kyiv when the invasion began.

She had to start her business from scratch.

With the grant, Yulia was able to purchase a modern kitchen machine, oven, and freezer. Now, she has everything she needs to restart her confectionery business in a new location.

Marichka cosmetics, Kyiv

"Marichka" cosmetics is a small brand of natural cosmetics for body and face skin founded by Maryna Solonets.

The brand produces hypoallergenic soaps, creams and candles for daily use. The grant funds were used to buy equipment that speeded up the process and increased production.

Klepka, Kyiv

"Klepka is a board game manufacturer that is designed, manufactured and serviced in Ukraine.

Now, the business wants to develop and enter other markets, including European ones. They plan to make an additional print run of the game about the English language, which is very popular, and the first print run of the game about Christmas with the grant funds.

MyEnglish, Kyiv region

The "My English school" is now resuming its activities after a pause caused by the invasion.

The brand used the grant to buy equipment for lessons with children: an interactive whiteboard, a laptop, a projector, and educational equipment. This will help to conduct new lessons with children.

